December 18, 2024

Dear Ibrahim:

Offer of Employment
Lab49, Inc. (the “Company”)

On behalf of the Company, I am pleased to offer you a position in our Engineering department based in our New York office, starting January 13th, 2024.

The terms of your employment are outlined below:

1. Your annualized base salary is $140,000. Your compensation is payable monthly in arrears, in accordance with the Company’s practices. You are entitled to take 16 days of paid vacation per year (including personal days) plus 10 holidays in accordance with Company policy. Vacation time accrues at the rate of 1.33 days per month, except during a notice period of less than one month. The Company reserves the right to deduct from your salary any sum for vacation taken in excess of entitlement. All payments to you pursuant to your employment are subject to applicable withholdings.
2. You are eligible for an annual discretionary bonus, subject to the achievement of personal and Group business objectives after year-end 2025.
3. You are eligible to participate in the Company’s 401(k) plan and in the Company’s medical insurance and disability plan; such plans may be modified at the Company’s discretion from time to time.
4. Your employment with the Company will be on an “at will” basis, meaning that either you or the Company may terminate your employment with or without cause, with no further obligation or liability. A notice period of one week is to be provided in the event of resignation or termination without cause within the first three months of employment. Thereafter, a notice period of four weeks is to be provided in the event of resignation or termination without cause.
5. You are required to comply with all federal and state laws and regulations in the workplace, including immigration laws requiring the provision of documentary evidence of your identity and eligibility for employment in the United States. This offer is subject to evidence of such eligibility for employment.

6. This offer is further subject to evidence of qualifications and the receipt of satisfactory references. It is also conditioned on your signature of the Company's confidentiality, non-compete and inventions agreement. The remuneration paid to you (including but not limited to any bonus paid to you from time to time) is paid partially in recognition of the fact that you have agreed to be subject to the restrictions and obligations contained in the confidentiality, non-compete and inventions agreement.
7. You are required at all times to comply with our Acceptable Use Policy and our Information Security Policy.
8. You are also required at all times to comply with our Anti-Corruption and Bribery Policy, set out in Appendix A.

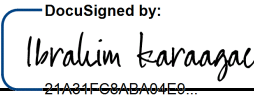

In order to accept our offer, sign the enclosed copy of this letter and return it by December 20, 2024. This letter agreement supersedes any previous oral or written agreement between you and the Company that relates to the subject matter hereof.

Yours sincerely,

Vivake Gupta
Chief Executive Officer

APPENDIX A

Anti-Corruption and Bribery Policy

1. Policy statement

- 1.1 Lab49, Inc. is a member of the ION group of companies. All employees of group companies, including Lab49, Inc., are subject to and must comply with all group policies.
- 1.2 It is our policy to conduct all of our business in an honest and ethical manner. We take a zero-tolerance approach to bribery and corruption and are committed to acting professionally and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships wherever we operate and implementing and enforcing effective systems to counter bribery.
- 1.3 We uphold all laws relevant to countering bribery and corruption in all the jurisdictions in which we operate.
- 1.4 The purpose of this policy is to:
 - 1.4.1 set out our responsibilities, and of those working for us, in observing and upholding our position on bribery and corruption; and
 - 1.4.2 provide information and guidance to those working for us on how to recognize and deal with bribery and corruption issues.
- 1.5 Bribery and corruption are punishable under criminal law by fines and imprisonment. Additionally, if a worker were charged with a crime involving bribery or corruption, the company could be excluded from tendering for public contracts and face damage to our reputation. We therefore take our legal responsibilities very seriously.

2. Who is covered by the policy?

- 2.1 This policy applies to all individuals working at all levels and grades, including senior managers, officers, directors, employees (whether permanent, fixed-term or temporary), consultants, contractors, trainees, seconded staff, homeworkers, casual workers and agency staff, volunteers, interns, agents, sponsors, or any other person associated with us, or any of our subsidiaries or their employees, wherever located (collectively referred to as workers in this policy).
- 2.2 This policy also applies to all your dealings with third parties, third party means any individual or organization you come into contact with during the course of your work for us, and includes actual and potential clients, customers, suppliers, distributors, business contacts, agents, advisers, and government and public bodies, including their advisors, representatives and officials, politicians, and political parties.

3. What is bribery?

- 3.1 A bribe is an inducement or reward offered, promised, or provided in order to gain any commercial, contractual, regulatory, or personal advantage.

- 3.2 The offering, promising, or giving of a bribe (active bribery) and the requesting, agreeing to receive or accepting of a bribe (passive bribery) are offenses.

Examples:

Offering a bribe

You offer a potential client, tickets to a major sporting event, but only if they agree to do business with us.

This would be an offense as you are making the offer to gain a commercial and contractual advantage. We may also be found to have committed an offense because the offer has been made to obtain business for us. It may also be an offense for the potential client to accept your offer.

Receiving a bribe

A supplier gives your nephew a job but makes it clear that in return they expect you to use your influence in our organization to ensure we continue to do business with them.

It is an offense for a supplier to make such an offer. It would be an offense for you to accept the offer as you would be doing so to gain a personal advantage.

Bribing a foreign official

You arrange for the business to pay an additional payment to a foreign official to speed up an administrative process, such as making a tender award in our favor.

The offense of bribing a foreign public official has been committed as soon as the offer is made. This is because it is made to gain a business advantage for us. We may also be found to have committed an offense.

4. Gifts and hospitality

- 4.1 In general workers shall not accept gifts or the conveyance of anything of value (including entertainment) from current or prospective customers or suppliers.
- 4.2 Cash gifts or their equivalent may not be accepted under any circumstances. Non-cash gifts may only be accepted when permitted under applicable law if they are nominal in value i.e., less than or equal to €50/£50/$50.
- 4.3 The giving or receipt of gifts is not prohibited, if the following requirements are met:
- 4.3.1 it is not made with the intention of influencing a third party to obtain or retain business or a business advantage, or to reward the provision or retention of business or a business advantage, or in explicit or implicit exchange for favours or benefits;
 - 4.3.2 it complies with local law;
 - 4.3.3 it is given in our name, not in your name;
 - 4.3.4 it does not include cash or a cash equivalent (such as gift certificates or vouchers);

- 4.3.5 it is appropriate in the circumstances. For example, in the UK it is customary for small gifts to be given at Christmastime;
 - 4.3.6 taking into account the reason for the gift, it is of an appropriate type and value and given at an appropriate time (e.g., Christmastime);
 - 4.3.7 it is given openly, not secretly; and
 - 4.3.8 gifts should not be offered to, or accepted from, government officials or representatives, or politicians or political parties, without the prior approval of People Operations.
- 4.4 We appreciate that the practice of giving business gifts varies between countries and regions and what may be normal and acceptable in one region may not be in another. The test to be applied is whether in all the circumstances the gift or hospitality is reasonable and justifiable. The intention behind the gift should always be considered. If you are in any doubt, you must contact People Operations.

5. What is not acceptable?

- 5.1 It is not acceptable for you (or someone on your behalf) to:
- 5.1.1 give, promise to give, or offer, a payment, gift or hospitality with the expectation or hope that a business advantage will be received, or to reward a business advantage already given;
 - 5.1.2 give, promise to give, or offer, a payment, gift or hospitality to a government official, agent, or representative to "facilitate" or expedite a routine procedure;
 - 5.1.3 accept payment from a third party that you know, or suspect is offered with the expectation that it will obtain a business advantage for them;
 - 5.1.4 accept a gift or hospitality from a third party if you know or suspect that it is offered or provide with an expectation that a business advantage will be provided by us in return;
 - 5.1.5 threaten or retaliate against another worker who has refused to commit a bribery offense or who has raised concerns under this policy; or
 - 5.1.6 engage in any activity that might lead to a breach of this policy.

6. Facilitation payments and kickbacks

- 6.1 We do not make, and will not accept, facilitation payments or "kickbacks" of any kind. Facilitation payments are typically small, unofficial payments made to secure or expedite a routine government action by a government official.
- 6.2 If you are asked to make a payment on our behalf, you should always be mindful of what the payment is for and whether the amount requested is proportionate to the goods or services provided. You should always ask for a receipt which details the reason for the payment. If you have any suspicions, concerns, or queries regarding a payment, you should raise these with the legal department.

- 6.3 Kickbacks are typically payments made in return for a business favor or advantage. All workers must avoid any activity that might lead to, or suggest, that a facilitation payment or kickback will be made or accepted by us.

7. Donations

- 7.1 We do not make contributions to political parties. We only make charitable donations that are legal and ethical under local laws and practices. No donation must be offered or made without the prior approval of the legal department.

8. Your responsibilities

- 8.1 You must ensure that you read, understand, and comply with this policy.
- 8.2 The prevention, detection and reporting of bribery and other forms of corruption are the responsibility of all those working for us or under our control. All workers are required to avoid any activity that might lead to, or suggest, a breach of this policy.
- 8.3 You must notify People Operations as soon as possible if you believe or suspect that a conflict with this policy has occurred, or may occur in the future, for example, if a client or potential client offers you something to gain a business advantage with us or indicates to you that a gift or payment is required to secure their business. Further "red flags" that may indicate bribery or corruption are set out in Schedule 1.
- 8.4 Any suspected breach of this policy may be subject to investigation. Any employee who breaches this policy will face disciplinary action, which could result in dismissal. We reserve our right to terminate our relationship with other workers if they breach this policy. Further civil and/or criminal actions may also result.
- 8.5 Failure to notify People Operations of any potential or actual breach of this policy may result in disciplinary action, which could result in dismissal. Further civil and/or criminal actions may also result.

9. Record-keeping

- 9.1 We must keep financial records and have appropriate internal controls in place which will evidence the business reason for making payments to third parties.
- 9.2 You must declare and keep a written record of all hospitality or gifts accepted or offered, which will be subject to managerial review.
- 9.3 You must ensure all expenses claims relating to hospitality, gifts or expenses incurred to third parties are submitted in accordance with our expenses policy and specifically record the reason for the expenditure.
- 9.4 All accounts, invoices, memoranda and other documents and records relating to dealings with third parties, such as clients, partners, suppliers, and business contacts, should be prepared and maintained with strict accuracy and completeness. No accounts must be kept "off-book" to facilitate or conceal improper payments.

10. How to raise a concern

- 10.1 You are encouraged to raise concerns about any issue or suspicion of malpractice at the earliest possible stage. If you are unsure whether a particular act constitutes bribery or corruption, or if you have any other queries, these should be raised with People Operations.

11. What to do if you are a victim of bribery or corruption

- 11.1 It is important that you tell People Operations as soon as possible if you are offered a bribe by a third party, are asked to make one, suspect that this may happen in the future, or believe that you are a victim of another form of unlawful activity.

12. Protection

- 12.1 Workers who refuse to accept or offer a bribe, or those who raise concerns or report another's wrongdoing, are sometimes worried about possible repercussions. We aim to encourage openness and will support anyone who raises genuine concerns in good faith under this policy, even if they turn out to be mistaken.
- 12.2 We are committed to ensuring no one suffers any detrimental treatment as a result of refusing to take part in bribery or corruption, or because of reporting in good faith their suspicion that an actual or potential bribery or other corruption offense has taken place or may take place in the future. Detrimental treatment includes dismissal, disciplinary action, threats or other unfavorable treatment connected with raising a concern. If you believe that you have suffered any such treatment, you should inform People Operations immediately.

13. Who is responsible for the policy?

- 13.1 The board of directors has overall responsibility for ensuring this policy complies with our legal and ethical obligations, and that all those under our control comply with it.
- 13.2 The compliance manager has primary and day-to-day responsibility for implementing this policy, and for monitoring its use and effectiveness. Management at all levels are responsible for ensuring those reporting to them is made aware of and understand this policy and are given adequate and regular training on it.

14. Monitoring and review

- 14.1 The compliance manager will monitor the effectiveness and review the implementation of this policy, regularly considering its suitability, adequacy, and effectiveness. Any improvements identified will be made as soon as possible. Internal control systems and procedures will be subject to regular internal audits to provide assurance that they are effective in countering bribery and corruption.
- 14.2 All workers are responsible for the success of this policy and should ensure they use it to disclose any suspected danger or wrongdoing.
- 14.3 Workers are invited to comment on this policy and suggest ways in which it might be improved. Comments, suggestions, and queries should be addressed to People Operations.
- 14.4 This policy may be amended at any time at the sole discretion of ION.

Schedule 1 - Potential risk scenarios: "red flags"

The following is a list of possible red flags that may arise during the course of your working for us, and which may raise concerns under various anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws. The list is not intended to be exhaustive and is for illustrative purposes only.

If you encounter any of these red flags while working for us, you must report them promptly to People Operations:

- (a) you become aware that a third party engages in, or has been accused of engaging in, improper business practices;
- (b) you learn that a third party has a reputation for paying bribes, or requiring that bribes are paid to them, or has a reputation for having a "special relationship" with foreign government officials;
- (c) a third party insists on receiving a commission or fee payment before committing to sign up to a contract with us, or carrying out a government function or process for us;
- (d) a third-party requests payment in cash and/or refuses to sign a formal commission or fee agreement, or to provide an invoice or receipt for a payment made;
- (e) a third-party request that payment is made to a country or geographic location different from where the third party resides or conducts business;
- (f) a third-party request an unexpected additional fee or commission to "facilitate" a service;
- (g) a third party demands lavish entertainment or gifts before commencing or continuing contractual negotiations or provision of services;
- (h) a third-party request that a payment is made to "overlook" potential legal violations;
- (i) a third-party request that you provide employment or some other advantage to a friend or relative;
- (j) you receive an invoice from a third party that appears to be non-standard or customized;
- (k) a third party insists on the use of side letters or refuses to put terms agreed in writing;
- (l) you notice that we have been invoiced for a commission or fee payment that appears large given the service stated to have been provided;
- (m) a third party requests or requires the use of an agent, intermediary, consultant, distributor, or supplier that is not typically used by or known to us; or
- (n) you are offered an unusually generous gift or offered lavish hospitality by a third party.

Acceptance:

I hereby confirm that I have accepted and understood this Anticorruption and Bribery Policy.

CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT, COVENANT NOT TO COMPETE AND INVENTIONS AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is by and between Lab49, Inc., a corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York (which, along with its subsidiaries and affiliates shall be referred to as the "Company"), and Ibrahim Karaagac an individual residing at 3060 48th St #3K Astoria NY 11103 (the "Employee").

W I T N E S S E I H:

WHEREAS, through the Employee's employment with the Company, the Employee may have access to and/or be involved in the process of developing Confidential Information (as hereinafter defined), Intellectual Property (as hereinafter defined), and/or customer relationships, all of which are highly valuable to the Company; and

WHEREAS, as a condition of employment or continued employment with the Company, the Company has requested that the Employee enter into this Agreement, and the Employee has agreed to do so.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of and ancillary to the Employee's employment relationship with the Company, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Confidentiality.

(a) For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Confidential Information" shall mean all information relating to the Company, its parent and/or their affiliates, which has not been made generally available to the public and to which the Employee has or had access, or which was developed by the Employee in the course of the Employee's employment with the Company or by using Company equipment, supplies or facilities, or which is disclosed to the Employee (whether prior to, on or subsequent to the date hereof) in connection with the Employee's employment with the Company, its parent and/or their affiliates, whether orally or in writing, in all cases, whether or not such information is subject to protection under patent, trademark, copyright or trade secret laws, and including, without limitation, all source code, object code, modules, algorithms, software programs, trade secrets, research, inventions, know-how, processes, techniques, costs, prices, customer names and data, customer contracts and requirements or other information about customers, prospect names and data or other information about prospects, plans, budgets, forecasts, financial results, operations and personnel information, all information relating to the development, formulation, production, marketing or sale of existing or contemplated products, systems or processes, and all other proprietary information relating to the Company, its parent and/or their affiliates. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it is expressly understood that Confidential Information includes (i) information disclosed orally by telephone or in person, (ii) information contained in memoranda, notes, records, papers, business plans, patent applications, software and other documents, electronic and magnetic storage media, and all copies thereof, and (iii) information received in confidence by the Company from its customers, suppliers or other third parties.

(b) The Employee shall not disclose, directly or indirectly, voluntarily, or involuntarily, all or any part of the Confidential Information to any person, firm or entity of any nature and shall not use all or any part of the Confidential Information for any purpose other than strictly in connection with the Company's business, while this Agreement is in effect and thereafter.

(c) The obligations of the Employee under Section 1(b) above shall not apply to Confidential Information that (i) has become publicly known through no wrongful act of the Employee, (ii) has been independently developed by the Employee prior to disclosure of Confidential Information to the Employee by the Company, its parent or their affiliates, or (iii) is required by court order to be disclosed by the Employee; provided, however, that prior to any disclosure by the Employee pursuant to this clause (iii) and immediately upon learning that such disclosure may be required, the Employee shall notify the Company and cooperate in any effort the Company may make to seek a protective order or other appropriate relief.

2. Covenant Not To Compete and Not To Solicit Employees.

(a) The Employee hereby covenants and agrees that the Employee will not, during the Employee's employment and for a period of four (4) months following the date of termination of the Employee's employment with the Company for whatever reason ("Restricted Period"), own, control, manage or operate, participate in the ownership, control, management or operation of, accept employment from, provide consulting services to, or otherwise participate or engage in, directly or indirectly, any business or activity (i) within a 50-mile radius of any of the Company's offices located in the United States or (ii) any other location in North America or (iii) any location in Europe or the rest of the world that (a) competes with the business or any part of the business conducted by the Company at any time while the Employee is an employee of the Company, or (b) competes with the business or any part of the business that is actively planned to be conducted by the Company at any time while the Employee is an employee of the Company.

(b) During the Restricted Period, the Employee may not accept employment from or perform services as an employee, independent contractor or otherwise for any entity that was a client or customer of the Company within the six- (6-) month period that immediately preceded the ending of the Employee's employment by the Company ("Company Customers"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Employee may become employed by or perform services for a Company Customer after the Employee's employment with the Company ends, provided the Employee's duties or services for the Company Customer are entirely unrelated to the products or services that are offered by or are actively planned to be offered by the Company, or substantially similar to such products or services.

(c) The Employee hereby covenants and agrees that the Employee will not, directly or indirectly, solicit, employ or entice away, whether on the Employee's behalf or on behalf of any other person or entity, any person who was an employee of the Company, its parent or their affiliates, (i) during the prior one (1) year period if during the Employee's employment or (ii) during the one (1) year period prior to the date of termination of the Employee's employment, if during the period of twelve (12) months following the date of termination of the Employee's employment with the Company for whatever reason.

(d) The Employee acknowledges and agrees that the restrictions set forth in this Section 2 are necessary to protect the Company's Confidential Information (including, without limitation, its customer lists) and its customer relationships. The Employee further acknowledges and agrees that the Employee considers the restrictions to be reasonable for this purpose.

(e) Any periods of restriction set forth in this Section 2 shall be automatically extended by the number of days equal to the total number of days in the period from the date of any breach of this Agreement until such breach has been fully cured.

3. Proprietary Rights.

(a) All Intellectual Property (as hereinafter defined) whether or not patented or registered or patentable or registerable, which is conceived, discovered, reduced to practice or otherwise created either by the Employee alone or in collaboration with others, whether or not during regular working hours, (i) while the Employee is or was employed by or providing consulting or other services to the Company or (ii) within one (1) year after the termination of the Employee's employment with the Company, if (A) such Intellectual Property relates in any way to the products, processes or business of the Company or (B) the Employee used any equipment, supplies or facilities of the Company or Confidential Information in connection with such Intellectual Property, shall be disclosed to the Company and shall be and remain the property of the Company. The Employee hereby waives any and all right, title and interest in and to the Intellectual Property, and the Employee hereby assigns and transfers, and to the extent any such assignment cannot be made at present, will assign and transfer, (without further compensation) to the Company and its successors and assigns all the Employee's rights, titles, and interests in and to such Intellectual Property.

(b) Upon the request of, and on behalf of, the Company, the Employee shall promptly make applications for letters of patent, trademarks, copyrights, and trade names. The Employee shall execute all other papers that may be necessary or useful to transfer to and vest in the Company or such other person or entity as it shall direct, any and all right, title and interest in and to the Intellectual Property which is the subject of any application. It is understood and agreed that the Employee shall receive no additional compensation for making such applications or for any assignment of the Intellectual Property to the Company or otherwise as directed by it. Furthermore, the Employee shall, without any material out-of-pocket expense to the Employee (provided that all out-of-pocket expenses shall be reimbursed by the Company), assist the Company in all reasonable respects in maintaining and enforcing any such patents, trademarks, copyrights, and trade names in the United States and worldwide.

(c) "Intellectual Property" shall mean all copyrights, patents, trademarks, service marks, trade names, domain names, trade dress, logos, and registrations and applications therefor (whether pending or in the process of preparation), including all foreign counterparts thereto, as well as all unpatented or uncopyrighted inventions, discoveries, processes, scientific, technical, engineering and marketing data, designs, modules, algorithms, software programs, source codes, object codes, drawings, blueprints, techniques, trade secrets, integrated circuit topographies, operating manuals, operating procedures and all other information, whether or not patentable or copyrightable, in whatever form owned or used, recognized as proprietary under applicable law.

4. Return of Documentation.

(a) The Employee shall, upon termination of the Employee's employment relationship with the Company and in any event upon request by the Company, deliver to the Company any and all devices, records, data, notes, reports, proposals, lists, correspondence, specifications, drawings, blueprints, sketches, materials, equipment, Confidential Information, Intellectual Property, other documents or property, and reproductions of any aforementioned items developed by him during the course of the Employee's employment relationship with the Company, or otherwise belonging to the Company, its parent and/or their affiliates or any of their successors or assigns (and will not keep in the Employee's possession, recreate or deliver to anyone else any copies or other reproductions thereof).

(b) Upon termination of employment the Employee shall delete any information belonging to the Company from any personal computer that he may have at home or elsewhere other than the Company's offices without retaining any copies of any such information, in electronic or other format, and will permit the Company to have access to such computer on reasonable notice to confirm such deletion. The Employee will notify the Company of any and all passwords used by the Employee in relation to its computer system.

5. Remedies Upon Breach. If the Employee shall breach, or threaten to commit a breach of any of the agreements contained in the foregoing provisions of this Agreement (the "Restrictive Covenants"), the Company shall have the right, in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other rights and remedies available to them under law or in equity, to have the Restrictive Covenants specifically enforced by any court, including, without limitation, the right to seek entry against the Employee of restraining orders and injunctions (preliminary, mandatory, temporary and permanent) against violations, threatened or actual, and whether or not then continuing, of the Restrictive Covenants, it being acknowledged and agreed that any such breach or threatened breach will cause irreparable injury to the Company and that money damages will not provide an adequate remedy to the Company. In addition to all such remedies, in the event the Company establishes the Employee breached any provision of the Restrictive Covenants, the Employee shall reimburse the Company for all attorneys' fees and costs associated with enforcing such Restrictive Covenants.

6. Blue-Penciling. If any court determines that any of the Restrictive Covenants contained in this Agreement, or any part thereof, are unenforceable because of the duration or scope of such provision, the duration or scope of such provision, as the case may be, shall be reduced so that such provision becomes enforceable and, in its reduced form, such provision shall then be enforceable and shall be enforced.

7. Survival and Assignment. Employee understands that the Employee's obligations under this Agreement will continue in accordance with its express terms regardless of any changes in the Employee's title, position, duties, or compensation. This Agreement shall be binding on, and shall inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors, and permitted assigns. The Employee expressly consents to be bound by the provisions of this Agreement for the benefit of any parent, subsidiary, or affiliate to whom Employee may be transferred without the necessity that this Agreement be re-signed at the time of such transfer.

8. Entire Agreement; Amendment and Waiver. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties pertaining to their subject matter and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, representations and understandings of the parties relating to such subject matter. No supplement, modification or amendment of this Agreement shall be binding unless executed in writing by all the parties. No waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed, or shall constitute, a waiver of any other provision, whether or not similar, nor shall any waiver constitute a continuing waiver. No waiver shall be binding unless executed in writing by the party making the waiver.

9. Prior Agreements. The Employee hereby represents that, unless the Employee previously disclosed otherwise in writing to the Company, Employee is not bound by the terms of any agreement with any previous employer or other party that will affect the Employee's ability to perform the Employee's duties to the Company. The Employee represents that the Employee will not disclose to the Company or induce the Company to use any confidential or proprietary information belonging to a previous employer or others.

10. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, all other provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

11. Interpretation; Headings. The subject headings of the articles, sections, paragraphs, and subparagraphs of this Agreement are included for purposes of convenience only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of any of its provisions.

12. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed simultaneously in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

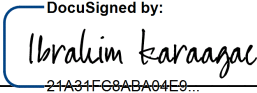

13. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if delivered to the address set forth above and shall be deemed to have been made: (a) on the date of service if served personally on the party; (b) on the second business day after delivery to an overnight courier service if first available delivery is indicated and paid for; or (c) on the third business day after mailing if mailed within the United States to the party to whom notice is to be given, by first class mail, registered or certified, postage prepaid. Any party may change its address for purposes of this Section 13 by giving the other parties written notice of the new address in the manner set forth above.

14. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with, and be governed by, the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to the conflicts of law's provisions thereof.

15. Jurisdiction. The parties' consent to jurisdiction and venue in the state and federal courts located in the State of New York.

16. JURY TRIAL WAIVER. EACH OF THE COMPANY AND THE EMPLOYEE HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have duly executed this Agreement as of the date of the last dated signature below.

Electronic Record and Signature Disclosure

ELECTRONIC RECORD AND SIGNATURE DISCLOSURE

From time to time, ION Group (we, us or Company) may be required by law to provide to you certain written notices or disclosures. Described below are the terms and conditions for providing to you such notices and disclosures electronically through the DocuSign, Inc. (DocuSign) electronic signing system. Please read the information below carefully and thoroughly, and if you can access this information electronically to your satisfaction and agree to these terms and conditions, please confirm your agreement by clicking the 'I agree' button at the bottom of this document.

Obtaining Paper Copies

At any time, you may request from us a paper copy of any record provided or made available to you electronically. You will have the ability to download and print documents we send to you through the DocuSign system, during and immediately after the signing session, (for at least 7 days) after such documents are first sent to you. You may request delivery of such paper copies from us by following the procedure described below.

Withdrawing Consent

You may at any time notify us that you wish to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format. If you elect to receive required notices and disclosures from ION Group only in paper format, you must withdraw your consent using the DocuSign 'Withdraw Consent' form on the signing page of a DocuSign envelope, rather than signing it. This will indicate that you have withdrawn your consent to receive required notices and disclosures electronically, and therefore, will no longer be able to use the DocuSign System. Further instructions on how to withdraw your consent is described below.

Electronic Notices and Disclosures

Unless you notify us otherwise, we will provide all required notices, disclosures, authorizations, acknowledgements, and other documents in accordance with the procedures described herein. To reduce the chance of you inadvertently not receiving any notice or disclosure, we prefer to provide all of the required notices and disclosures to you utilizing the same method of delivery as indicated to us. Thus, you can receive all the disclosures and notices electronically or if you prefer, in paper format through the traditional mail system. If you do not agree with this process, please let us know as described below.

Contacting ION Group

You may contact us to let us know of your changes as to how we may contact you electronically, to request paper copies of certain information, and to withdraw your prior consent to receive notices and disclosures electronically as follows:

To contact us by email send messages to: POPS_Support@iongroup.com

Advising ION Group of Your New E-Mail Address

Please send an e-mail to POPS_Support@iongroup.com to inform of a change in your e-mail address where we should send electronic notices and disclosures. In the body of your e-mail, please include the following information: your previous e-mail address and your new e-mail address. We do not require any other information.

If you are currently a DocuSign account holder (HR Administrators only), you must notify DocuSign, Inc. to arrange for your new email address to be reflected in your DocuSign account, by following the process for changing your e-mail in the DocuSign system.

Requesting Paper Copies From ION Group

To request paper copies of the notices and disclosures previously provided to you electronically, you must send us an e-mail to POPS_Support@iongroup.com. In the body of such request, you must state your e-mail address, full name, US Postal address, and telephone number.

To Withdraw Your Consent with ION Group

To inform us that you no longer want to receive future notices and disclosures in electronic format you may:

- i. decline to sign a document from within your DocuSign session, and on the subsequent page, select the check-box indicating you wish to withdraw your consent, or you may;
- ii. send us an e-mail to POPS_Support@iongroup.com and in the body of such request, you must state your e-mail, full name, US Postal Address, and telephone number. We do not need any other information from you to withdraw consent. The consequences of your withdrawing consent for online documents will be that transactions may take a longer time to process.

Required Hardware and Software

Operating Systems:	Windows2000? or WindowsXP?
Browsers (for SENDERS):	Internet Explorer 6.0? or above
Browsers (for SIGNERS):	Internet Explorer 6.0?, Mozilla FireFox 1.0, NetScape 7.2 (or above)
Email:	Access to a valid email account
Screen Resolution:	800 x 600 minimum
Enabled Security Settings:	• Allow per session cookies • Users accessing the internet behind a Proxy Server must enable HTTP 1.1 settings via proxy connection

 The minimum requirements outlined above are subject to change. If these requirements change, you will be asked to re-accept the disclosure. Pre-release (e.g. beta) versions of operating systems and browsers are not supported.

Acknowledging Access and Consent to Receive Materials Electronically

To confirm to us that you can access this information electronically, which will be similar to other electronic notices and disclosures that we will provide to you, please verify that you were able to read this electronic disclosure and that you also were able to print on paper or electronically save this page for your future reference and access or that you were able to e-mail this disclosure and consent to an address where you will be able to print on paper or save it for your future reference and access. Further, if you consent to receiving notices and disclosures exclusively in electronic format on the terms and conditions described above, please let us know by clicking the 'I agree' button below.

By checking the 'I Agree' box, I confirm that:

- I can access and read this Electronic CONSENT TO ELECTRONIC RECEIPT OF ELECTRONIC RECORD AND SIGNATURE DISCLOSURES document; and
- I can print on paper the disclosure or save or send the disclosure to a place where I can print it, for future reference and access; and
- Until or unless I notify ION Group as described above, I consent to receive all notices, disclosures, authorizations, acknowledgements, and other documents that are required to be provided or made available to me exclusively through electronic means, during the course of my employment with ION Group.
